

Cotford St Luke: 1-minute newsletter

It has been wet and windy for much of the week; break and lunchtimes inside are never ideal however the children have coped brilliantly. When the weather is okay, we will go outside, including in light rain. Please can all children have an appropriate coat with them in school each day. Children are welcome to bring in a pair of shoes specifically for lunch time, keeping their school shoes dry.

Appeal from Miss Hill and Miss Parsons:

Miss Hill and Miss Parsons are going to be running a games club. They would be very glad to receive complete board games you may no longer use. Please send in any donations with your children or drop them to the office any time.

Recommended Reads:

The school's librarians have been doing an amazing job of sorting books, maintaining the library and being advocates of reading in the school. They have been compiling lists of books they would like to recommend. They have asked me to share their recommendations here. Their first recommended reads are:

How to Train your Dragon series

Tom Gates Books

Harry Potter Books

Library of Lemons
